

What To Do & Where To Eat in the Redland Area: Tell them The Villagers sent you!

- Once a bustling railroad village at the turn of the century, Cauley Square now plays home to an eclectic collection of shops and restaurants, including the long-time local favorite Tea Room. <http://cauleysquare.com>
22400 Old Dixie Hwy, Miami, FL 33170
- For fresh strawberries and their iconic (delicious!) strawberry shake, stop by Burr's Berry Farm. <http://www.burrsberryfarm.com>
12741 SW 216th St, Miami, FL 33170
- Relax during a tasty lunch (with friendly staff) at the White Lion Cafe, open 11AM - 3PM. <http://whitelioncafe.com/>
146 NW 7th St, Homestead, FL 33030
- Knaus Berry Farm is open and selling baked goods (think best cinnamon rolls ever) and shakes from mid-November until the end of April. Be prepared for long lines on Saturdays (they are closed Sundays). <http://www.knausberryfarm.com/>
15980 SW 248th St, Homestead, FL 33031
- Fruit & Spice Park is on 30 acres with more than 500 varieties of herbs, nuts, spices and unusual fruits; Mangos Cafe's terrific Florida lobster rolls give New England a run for their money. You do not have to enter to go to the Cafe, it is located off the parking lot not far from the entrance gate. <http://redlandfruitandspice.com/>
24801 SW 187th Ave, Homestead, FL 33031
- Buy some orchids at RF Orchids, adjacent to one of the featured gardens <http://rforchids.com/>
28100 SW 182nd Ave, Homestead, FL 33030
- The historic Redland Hotel first opened in 1904. Now featuring a popular restaurant, the renovated hotel is a perfect spot from which to visit all the area sites as well as Miami-Dade County's two national parks, Everglades and Biscayne National. <https://www.hotelredland.com/>
5 S Flagler Ave, Homestead, FL 33030
- For a fruit & veggie stand on steroids, check out Robert is Here, in business for more than 60 years. Stop in for amazing fruits and vegetables, a petting zoo, and shakes extraordinaire (Key Lime their most famous); <https://www.robertishere.com/>
19200 SW 344th St, Homestead, FL 33034
- For tours, wine and beer tastings, or just to relax in a beautiful setting, visit Schnebly Redland's Winery. <http://www.schneblywinery.com>
30205 SW 217th Avenue, Homestead, FL 33030

Garden
21900 SW 157 Ave

Burr's Berry Farm

Cauley Square

Fruit & Spice Park

Garden
28100 SW 182 Ave

Knauss Berry Farm

White Lion Cafe

Redland Hotel

Robert is Here

Schnebly Winery

