Historic Preservation Group Will Gather to Celebrate Its "George" Benefactors

By Karla Martinez Carballal

On Sunday, March 24th, the Board of Directors of the Historic Preservation Association of Coral Gables will host a special event to recognize the annual fund campaign through the George Giving Society—named in honor of Coral Gables founder George Merrick. Donations are anonymous and benefit historic preservation and its resources. The top money-earner from the year will be named the George Benefactor.

Your support means everything. 100% of all gifts of $100 or more to the George Giving Society are acknowledged, and a 100% tax deduction may be available to the donor IRS guidelines.

Donors by the year to March 24th will be invited to the annual fund luncheon reception. Please join us in our commitment to maintaining a strong cultural partnership in Coral Gables. Your support helps us be able to continue supporting worthy preservation projects in our community.

The George Giving Society is named in honor of Coral Gables founder, George Merrick. The George Giving Society is an annual giving campaign. Gifts made in the campaign as part of the giving luncheon will be recognized in the Annual Fund of Donors. Individuals who give $100 or more are invited to the annual fund luncheon reception.

Papi Steak to Open in South of Fifth Neighborhood

The legendary David "Papi" Eisenberg family plans for Papi Steak in partnership with David Grunwald's Good Hospitality within Miami Beach's South of Fifth neighborhood. On the heels of the overwhelming success of the Papi Steak on South Florida's historic Krome Road, the new restaurant, Papi Steak, will be an intimate 95-seat modern steakhouse with a contemporary twist in a new and energetic environment.

"It's an honor when we would get together and BBQ in Miami in an attempt to introduce some of our New York culture and heritage. This year, we're opening Papi Steak with our signature secret sauce for the Papi and family," said Papi. "I love to host people and cook for them. I know I was destined to open a restaurant someday, we can't wait to introduce this new and innovative steakhouse to Miami."

Born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, Papi grew up in a modest household and was given the opportunity to travel the globe as a college student and soon became an expert in the art of the grill. Upon returning home to New York City, Papi would last minute dinners amongst some of the most influential New Yorkers and visiting South Floridians. The signature tender Papi steak will be the centerpiece of the Papi Steak experience.

They have become a beloved part of the Good Hospitality and David Grunwald. "With the popularity of the Papi Steak at Krome, we knew this was a concept we wanted to be a part of. We aren't looking to be just another steakhouse, we always look to be things different - embracing the flavors and cultures of Papi's upbringing."

Papi Steak is set to open this summer in Miami Beach's South of Fifth neighborhood.

Villagers' Annual Garden Tour Enjoyed by Hundreds

Bright sun, warm breezes, and scenic gardens were enjoyed by hundreds at the Villagers' annual "A Kaleidoscope of Gardens" tour featuring five private homes. For more than 35 years the group has hosted a spring garden tour to benefit local historic preservation.

More than 30 local organizations have received funding for preservation projects. Additionally, college scholarships are awarded annually to students studying historic preservation at the University of Miami, FIU, the University of Florida, and graduating seniors from Miami's Design and Architecture High School.
