

Toots & The Maytals and Billy Ocean To Perform Feb. 22

Magic City Casino is proud to present fan-favorite rock-steady group Toots and The Maytals, led by their legendary frontman Toots Hibbert, and Grammy Award-winning Billy Ocean on Saturday, February 22 at 7 p.m. from the Magic City Amphitheater.

“It will be a night of infectious reggae and catchy island beats when Toots & The Maytals and Billy Ocean play live from the Magic City Amphitheater,” said Scott Savin, Chief Operating Officer of Magic City Casino. “Toots fans will be dancing along to reggae classics like ‘Time Tough,’ ‘Monkey Man’ and ‘54-46 Was My Number.’ Billy Ocean will kick off the party with live versions of smash hits like ‘Suddenly,’ ‘There’ll Be Sad Songs’ and ‘Caribbean Queen!’”

Trinidadian-born English “Loverboy” Billy Ocean will get the crowd “Calypso Crazy” with his hits “When The Going Gets Tough” and “Get Outta My Dreams, Get Into My Car.”

Over the course of his lengthy career, this Grammy Award-winning recording artist has collected a string of Gold and Platinum records and generated a loyal fan base with upbeat songs that instill a zest for life.

The show is open to all ages. Tickets start at $25 and can be purchased online at www.magiccitycasino.com or by calling 844-234-SHOW. Plenty of free on-site parking is available.

Save the Date for The Villagers’ March 7 Garden Tour

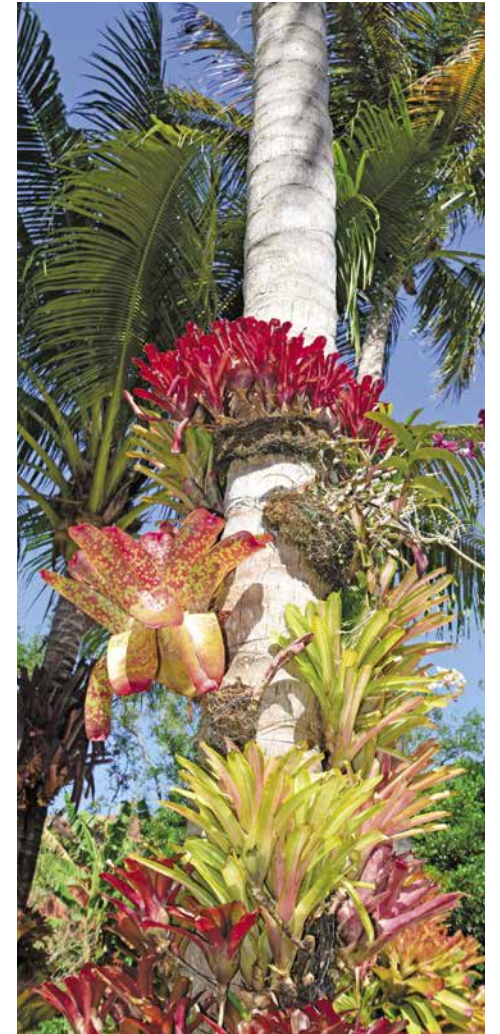

From the magical to the whimsical and historical, enjoy a day visiting specially selected private gardens during The Villagers annual fundraiser benefiting historic preservation. “A 20/20 Vision of Tropical Splendor” will feature five lovely properties in the greater Pinecrest and Coral Gables area from 10 AM until 3 PM on Saturday, March 7th.

Visitors may enjoy complimentary refreshments and a gift boutique with a variety of unique garden-related items for sale. The boutique will remain open until 4 pm, an hour after the tour ends.

“The tour this year is a curated collection of five heritage gardens, all carefully created by the homeowners, so it truly is a gardener’s garden tour,” explained Tour co-chair, Terry Cook. “All show a patina, you can only get through patience and time.”

Tickets may be purchased in advance from Villagers’ members or online for $35. The day of the tour, tickets will be available for $40 at Pinecrest Gardens, 11000 SW 57th. Tour-goers will receive a map to guide them to each garden as well as detailed information about landscaping highlights. Members of The Villagers will be on hand with insider-details about the flora and fauna at each site.

Participants drive their own vehicles between the properties. The venues cannot accommodate wheelchairs, walkers or strollers and carpooling and flat shoes are encouraged. There is no smoking or photography.

For more information and tickets, visit: www.thevillagersinc.org

The Villagers is Miami-Dade County’s oldest historic preservation organization, founded in 1966. More than 80 local organizations have received funding for preservation projects and college scholarships are awarded annually to students studying historic preservation.

THE GREAT CORAL GABLES SCAVENGER HUNT

Scavenger Hunts To Incite Adventure in Coral Gables

A one-day event, “The Great Coral Gables Scavenger Hunt,” is coming to Coral Gables from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 22. The free event is co-created by The Business Improvement District (BID) of Coral Gables and Coral Gables Magazine.

The morning will start on Miracle Mile in Downtown Coral Gables from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., where participants will walk from clue to clue as they solve the puzzles and riddles in a family-friendly scavenger hunt for a chance to win a variety of prizes. Check-in begins at 9 a.m. at Actors’ Playhouse at the Miracle Theatre (280 Miracle Mile).

“The Great Coral Gables Scavenger Hunt’ is a fun and interactive way for participants to experience Coral Gables,” said Taciana Amador, Executive Director of The Business Improvement District. “There’s something for everyone.”

Following the morning activities, a larger and even more brain-teasing adult-friendly scavenger hunt will take place from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Registration begins at 1 p.m. at the Coral Gables Museum (285 Aragon Ave). Contestants will travel around the City Beautiful by car to win prizes.
